

Module 10: Performance-Based Budget Concepts

Activity B: Performance-based budget review

- Individually review the basic model of a performance-based budget from the International Monetary Fund. Highlight key terms/concepts you find particularly important for your budget making work.
- Next, with your colleagues, discuss key common issues you have identified and brainstorm how they relate to your work. What can you do about them?
- Then, review the full presentation on developing performance-based budgets to understand how they are formulated.
